General Management for Executives

St. Gallen is the center for holistic management teaching. The Business School St. Gallen is a pioneer in the practical application of this management concept. In our general management seminars, numerous managers have learned what it takes and how to proceed in order to lead a company or organization successfully in the long term. 4 days, implementation in CH or D. Executive Leadership

Executive leadership helps managers, management teams, an entire company or a sub-division to lead correctly: In such a way that performance and job satisfaction can be optimized. So that the desired results are achieved. So that self-organization, personal initiative and the joy of shared success become a cultural element. 4 days, held in CH or D. Strategy & business development

You earn your money with the "old" business and secure your future with the new one.
