Concept

Participants in this program are top performers and high potentials from all areas who want to examine what they can improve in their leadership behavior and the way they lead. Self-management, appearance and communication make you exactly the motivator that employees want: a boss who sets ambitious goals and helps everyone to achieve them together; a boss who is a role model, promotes and develops employees; a boss who communicates openly, criticizes understandably, gives and demands trust; a boss who sets a good example; a boss who stands up for his employees and their wishes and personal goals. The motivating leader is employee- and performance-oriented at the same time.

Structure

Part 1: The effective leadership personality

Part 2: Leadership competence thanks to leadership behavior

Part 3: Understanding systems and complexity

Topics

Make optimal use of your own resources

Only those who have self-management under control can lead others. What leadership techniques and tools are important in order to optimize your own contribution to the well-being of the company?

Multiply your own effectivity

How can you optimize your own effectiveness? Compare the solutions offered by management theory with your own leadership style!

Act confidently and convince

In business life, there are numerous situations in which a confident demeanor and convincing self-presentation are important. Optimize your personal impact through knowledge, training and feedback.

Communicate skillfully

How can you improve your communication skills? How does good communication work?

Leading employees to success

Anyone who puts teams and team success first is in the role of team manager and coach. This requires a certain type of leadership.

Social competence

Employee motivation and commitment are the keys to success. Thanks to high social skills, it is possible to inspire enthusiasm for goals and create a good and performance-oriented working environment.

Conflict management

Wherever people work together, there are conflicts. As a boss, you have a duty to deal with them: We will show you how you can go about identifying conflicts early on and preventing them from escalating.

Systems and complexity

In today's rapidly evolving world, businesses, governments and communities are grappling with multifaceted problems ranging from climate change to social inequality. Traditional hierarchical leadership models are inadequate for addressing such complex challenges. Systems Leadership recognizes that many issues are interconnected and require collective action and shared accountability. It is an approach that prioritizes collaboration across teams, departments and business units to address deep rooted issues and find long-term solutions.

Participants are of course free to stay overnight outside the seminar hotel. In this case, you pay only the daily flat rate charged by the hotel/conference center directly to the hotel or conference center.

The course fee is charged after registration and must be transferred no later than 6 weeks before the start of the seminar. We reserve the right to make minor changes to topics, the sequence of topics and speakers.

We as organizers have the right to move a seminar to our study center in St. Gallen for valid reasons without this justifying cancellation of registration.

Some of our seminars are held in cooperation with other renowned institutions. The respective event partner records customer satisfaction at the end of the seminar and forwards the evaluation to the cooperation partner.

Certificate
You will receive a course certificate upon completion of the course, or in the case of a multi-part program, during the last part of the program.

Change of Booking, Postponement
If you rebook a booked seminar or part of a seminar up to 3 months before the start, we charge a rebooking fee of CHF 400 plus VAT. If you rebook between 6 weeks and 3 months before the start of the seminar, 20% of the fees for the rebooked event must be paid. If you rebook less than 6 weeks before the start, 40% of the fee is due. If you rebook less than 2 weeks before the start of the seminar, 80% of the fee is due. If you do not show up, the fee will be forfeited without compensation. Seminars and parts of seminars not attended will be forfeited.

When rebooking, there may be program changes/adjustments and overlaps. This does not entitle you to a partial refund of the seminar fee.

Cancellation, Withdrawal
Cancellation of registration (withdrawal or cancellation) is possible free of charge up to 3 months before the start of the seminar. If you cancel between 3 months and 6 weeks before the start of the seminar, 40% of the seminar fee plus VAT will be charged.

We treat rebookings made due to a pandemic or an acute danger situation (terror, war) with great goodwill: We waive the usual rebooking fees. Due to the extended rebooking option, the above-mentioned "free cancellation up to 3 months before the start of the seminar" does not apply. The seminar fee, if not already paid, remains due with the value date stated in the invoice.

Dangerous situations include events such as an epidemic, a pandemic, disasters, serious political or social upheavals that pose a danger to the participants that should reasonably be avoided by postponing the event. A postponement for such reasons by St. Gallen Business School does not entitle the participant to cancel the booked seminar or program.

Insurance, Liability, Price Changes
We recommend that you take out seminar cancellation insurance with your insurance company to cover cancellation costs due to illness and other events.

Any other damage that could be directly or indirectly related to the seminar attendance, whether from accident, illness, liability, theft, cancellation of the seminar by the organizer or damage resulting from the application of the management knowledge imparted by the participants or the company commissioned by us, must also be insured or covered. We exclude any liability.
